

Wednesday, 18 January, 2023

Conference Day 1

Time	Topic
07:00 – 08:00	Registration & Morning Coffee
08:00 – 09:00	Global OHNS Initiative
09:00 – 10:00	Logistics of Humanitarian Surgical Campaigns Conducted in the Middle East
10:00 – 10:30	Mid-Morning Coffee Break & Poster Viewing
10:30 – 11:30	Open Access Education to Address Global Otolaryngology Inequities
11:30 – 12:30	Achievements' Examples "Campaign Setup Idol" Conducted in the Middle East - Morocco Humanitarian Thyroid Surgery Campaign: A Set Example - National Surgical Humanities Need and Fast Development - Humanitarian Medical Volunteering: Our Experience - The Journey of Humanitarian in Hadramout -Yemen
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch Break & Prayer
14:00 – 16:00	Overcoming Challenges in Humanitarian Campaigns - Pediatric laryngotracheal reconstruction in low resource settings- challenges and opportunities - A surgeon at surgical humanities camping lessons and messages. - Setting up an ENT service in a developing country - Developing sustainable humanitarian otology missions - Low resource rhinology - The value of partnerships in cultivating change (NGOs, hospitals, government programs or interest groups etc) - Experience on pediatric otology and cleft Surgery in Latin America - Challenges facing otolaryngologists in low and middle income countries during the covid 19 pandemic.
16:00 – 16:30	Afternoon Coffee Break
16:30 – 17:30	Development of a Lateral Skull Base Surgery Program in Resource Limited Settings
17:30 – 18:30	Women in Otolaryngology

This is a Preliminary Program, subject to change.

1

Thursday, 19 January 2023

Conference Day 2

Time	Topic
07:00 – 08:00	Registration & Morning Coffee
08:00 – 09:00	Ethics In Global Surgery
09:00 – 10:00	Education, Training and Knowledge Sharing in Humanitarian Missions - Developing a Sustainable Educational Program with Short Term Teams in Developing Environments - Use of Formal Resident/Medical Student Education for Global Surgery- Pilot of a Global Surgery Track During Training - The role of the trainee in global surgery - Otolaryngology training pathways in Sub Saharan Africa
10:00 – 10:30	Mid-Morning Coffee Break & Poster Viewing
10:30 – 11:30	Pragmatic Approaches to Address Hearing Healthcare Disparities
11:30 – 12:30	Practical Guidelines in Low - Resource Settings in Head and Neck Surgery
12:30 – 14:00	Lunch Break & Prayer
14:00 – 15:00	Research & Innovation in Global Outreach - Research and Service to Improve Hearing Health in Lmic - How to Set Up Nurse Led Ear Health Clinics and Audiometry Services in a Resource Poor Environment Across the Pacific Island Nations. - Utilizing Bidirectional Needs Assessment Tool in the Design of Short Term Surgical Trips to Lmics - Advances in Virtual Surgical Care for Low Resource Settings
15:00 – 16:00	How Orl Fits into the Larger Global Surgery Scheme with Regard to National Surgical Planning
16:00 – 16:30	Afternoon Coffee Break
16:30 – 17:30	WHO Action
17:30 – 18:30	Humanitarian Action in Otolaryngology in Dubai.

This is a Preliminary Program, subject to change.

2

